Crop Planners

Mr. Ulmer became trustee of Chester Township on January 1 of this year. He has long been active in community affairs and has shown a strong desire to study the needs of Chester and to do his part in expanding and improving the facilities of the schools.

Mr. Vandegrift has been Wabash County Superintendent of Schools for the past ten years. He received his A.B. Degree from Manchester College and his M.A. Degree from Ball State Teachers College. He always has a good word for Chester.

CLARENCE L. VANDEGRIFT

JASON J. SMITH

WALTER R. METZGER

Mr. Smith has been principal of Chester for the last three years. He received his Bachelor's Degree from Ball State Teachers College and his Master's Degree from Indiana University. His goal is to promote the continuous improvement of the schools of Chester Township.

On December 31, 1946, Mr. Metzger retired from the office of Township Trustee after eight years of worthy service. He has continued to manifest an interest in the schools and is usually present at all activities.

Mrs. Mary Baker—A.B. Manchester College

This small blonde senora who teaches Spanish, Latin, and English, is adviser of the cheer leaders and of the freshman class; enjoys travel and taking kodachrome snapshots.

Mr. Wayne Dilling—A. B. Manchester College

Chester scores again! Besides keeping score at the ball games, he teaches commercial subjects, advises Chester Chatter, and freshmen, and trims the boys at ping pong.

Mr. Gerold E. Faudree—

A.B. Manchester College

Affectionately called "Doe," and elder brother of Faudree Bros., Inc., he teaches science, coaches basketball, advises the juniors and enjoys golf and fishing.

Faculty

Miss Ida Eshelman—

A.B. Manchester College

Tall dark-haired Miss Eshelman, who hails from Ohio, teaches English, coached the junior play, advised the juniors and Y-teens and writes letters in her spare time.

Mr. Paul Faudree—A. B. Manchester College

This dark-haired Faudree brother teaches health, physical education, and social studies, coaches sports, and sings tenor and how!

Miss Betty Gongwer—A.B. Manchester College

This small, vivacious, dark-eyed lass teaches English, directed the senior play, advised the seniors, Y-teens, debaters, and Chester Chatter staff and serves as school librarian.

Mr. Harold Leckrone—B.S. Manchester College

Director of all bands and twirlers, he also teaches vocal music, advises the eighth grade, and entertains humorously or seriously on the piano.

Mr. Cecil Scribner—B.A.E. State Teachers College, River Falls, Wis.

This dark-haired, not-so-tall teacher of vocational agriculture and general science, sponsors 4-H clubs, judging teams, F.F.A. and the sophomore class and watches the clock at ball games.

Mr. John I. Searer—A. B. Manchester College

Although he is the oldest in point of service at Chester, don't let that fool you. He knows his dates—history, of course—but he likes and teaches mathematics also.

Miss Leah Stone—

B.S. Manchester College

Teacher of vocational home economics, health and physical education, and adviser to 4-H clubs and sophomore class, this fiery-haired teacher is always busy. She enjoys sports both as spectator and a participant.

Miss Bernice Walther—

B.S. Manchester College

Artistic but not temperamental is this teacher of art and music, director of girls' glee club and mixed chorus, adviser to the eighth grade and, most important of all, adviser of the Ravelings staff.

Mr. Lee Weimer—B.S. Manchester College; M.S. Ball State

This sports enthusiast advises Hi-Y and seventh grade, and teaches mathematics. Wherever there is action, there he is found.

Mrs. Maxine Yentes

This Chester graduate, our very efficient and dependable office clerk, changed her name between school terms.

Mrs. Hester Knull—Manchester College; Northwestern University

This well liked teacher offers Bible one day a week to all the elementary pupils of the township.

Senior Inventory

Back in 1943-44, thirty-one deep-green freshmen were enrolled in Chester High School and assigned seats on the west side of the study hall. Class officers elected were President, Jack Pullin; Vice-President, Todd Schroll; Secretary, Willodean Pottenger; Treasurer, Pat Huffman. The advisers were Mr. Dilling and Miss Gongwer.

When school opened in 1944, thirty-one pale-green sophomores answered the roll call under the direction of Miss Stone and Mr. Scribner. Officers for the year were: Bill Runkel, President; Fred Martin, Vice-President; Eva Rhoades, Secretary; Gladys Greer, Treasurer. Four new members entered during the year. They were Bonnie Workman, Carole Swihart, Bob Miller and Ruth Clouser. One member, Opal Branstator, moved to Arizona. Two skating parties were held during the year.

In the fall of '45, thirty-one slowly-maturing students enrolled for their junior year. Bob Ziegler and John Graham joined the ranks, but Lamoine Harrell and Merrill Hobbs moved away. The officers were: Bob Ziegler, President; Bob Miller, Vice-President; Eva Rhoades, Secretary; and Ralph Kester, Treasurer. Miss Gongwer and Mr. G. Faudree were the advisers. Unforgettable events of the year were class rings, selling refreshments at ball games, a three-act comedy "Almost Summer" under the direction of Miss Gongwer, and the Junior-Senior Reception which was the first one to be taken away from the school.

On August 30, 1946, thirty dignified (?) seniors were ready for the harvest. The officers were: Max Lefforge, President; Earl Grindle, Vice-President; Gladys Greer, Secretary; Carole Swihart, Treasurer. Miss Gongwer and Mr. Smith were the advisers. Some of the highlights of the year were: Bonnie Workman and Willodean Pottenger were elected heads of "Chester Chatter," Max Lefforge was chosen captain of the basketball team; a bowling party was held at Wabash; Ralph Kester, Todd Schroll and Bob Miller were elected to head "Ravelings"; graduation pictures were received; the class trip to Washington, D.C., was taken; a class play, "A Little Honey," was given.

Last Will and Testament

We the Class of '47, being of sound mind and memory, do make publish and declare this our last will and testament, in manner and form as follows:

Article I

We bequeath to the Junior Class our seats in the assembly, our well-worn books, and our ability to carry on a conversation regardless of time and place.

We give to the Sophomore Class our strong sense of humor. (Try using it outside of class.)

To those inherently absent minded Freshmen we will and bequeath 100 pairs of non-skid ten-foot stilts so they can be high enough in the air to at least see the tops of the upperclassmen's noses.

To the entire school we give, devise, and bequeath a feeling of peace and relief of mind, occasioned by our graduation, and also a new system whereby tests are made self-answering so that those who follow in our footsteps may be saved the worry that brought untimely gray hairs to the heads of the illustrious members of the Class of '47.

Article II

I, Lynn Bollinger, bequeath my 140 pounds to that mighty creature, "Perry" Coon.

I, Ruth Clouser, will my ability to turn cartwheels to Charlene Royer.

I, Mike Cornwell, am gonna take it with me.

I, Clifford Crist, will my ability to play the guitar to Don Brindle.

I, Ileana Fitch, will my school books to anyone who has a match.

I, John Graham, will my seat in the assembly to any good looking girl who thinks she can keep Harmon Gradeless company.

I, Gladys Greer, will to Mary Alice Colbert the best known doctor there is for her troubles, and my art work for the Chester Chatter to whoever will be sucker enough to bite.

I, Art Grindle, of strong back and sound sleeping frame, will my ability to stay out nights and sleep in school to the Junior who will take my place in the senior class next year, Bob Johnson.

I, Earl Grindle, will my voice to Mary Alice Colbert so she can sing, "White Christmas" a little better next year.

I, Annabelle Hanley, will my A's in deportment to cousin June, so he need never again be ineligible for the basketball team.

I, Willis Hauptert, will my ability not to get lipstick on my shirt collar to Herman Schannep.

I, Elaine Helvey, will my ability to stay out late to the basketball boys.

I, Leigh Jackson, will my ability to write the Senior news for the Chester Chatter to anyone of the Juniors who wants it.

I, Ralph Kester, will my motorcycle to Joe Baker with the hope that he will use both wheels as he goes around corners.

I, Max Lefforge, will my ponderous physique to Charles Gibbs.

I, Bob McFarland, of weak heart and strong mind, will my 142 pounds of bone and muscle to the one who needs it most, Dick Piper. And may he have better luck with it than I have.

I, Fred Martin, will my ability to get along with the teachers to anyone that doesn't.

I, Bob Miller, will my unruly hair to Mr. Weimer.

I, Wilbur Miller, will my ability to get A's in citizenship to Ben Wright. He needs it.

I, Willodean Pottenger, will my ability to stand up on skates to Dick Piper; I also will him a pillow to put at the place where he needs it most.

I, Jack Pullin, will the front seat of my car to Bob Johnson, the back seat to Dick Piper and the drivers seat to Hugo Hapner so they won't have to walk to Wabash.

I, Eva Rhoades, will my well-groomed hair to Mary Alice Colbert.

I, Bill Runkel, will my ability to get from Central to Chester in two minutes to anyone who thinks he can do it.

I, Todd Schroll, will my "Chevy" coupe to the Junior boys so they won't have to ride their thumbs to Wabash.

I, Joann Snell, will my ability to stay out of mischief to my brother, Bob, and also my brown hair to Charlene Royer to go with her red sweaters.

I, Carole Swihart, will my ability to be seen and not heard to a mischevous seventh grader, Larry Schenkel.

I, Charles Tackitt, will my ability to run the mile to Ted Coon.

I, Marcy Tyner, will my long hair to any girl who has the patience and pins to put it up.

I, Marily Warren, will my sparkling eyes and dimpled cheeks to Marlene Schroll.

I, Bonnie Workman, will my ability to get to class on time to Bob Little, and my ability to write editorials to anyone who has an imagination.

In witness whereof we do here place our hand and seal this seventh day of May, nineteen hundred and forty-seven, A. D.

The Senior Class of 1947

Senior Class Prophecy

As I was strolling down Meridian Street one warm summer morning, I met Chet and Christine Chester. They told me they were going to the State Fair and invited me to go along.

We chugged into the fair grounds about 8:00 and started on our tour of the 1962 State Fair.

The first thing we saw was a large elaborate sign saying, "Kisses for Sale—Two for a Nickel or Three for a Dime." Chet, having received his basic training at Chester, made a beeline for the booth. Inside, much to our astonishment, we saw that shy, dark-haired lass, Ruth Clouser doing a bang-up business.

While Chet was pushing his way forward in the line, a handsome young man yelled, "Stop shoving! I saw her first!" It turned out to be none other than Wilbur Miller, the now famous chemist working for DuPont. I reflected that Wilbur had changed some.

Christine caught up with Chet just then and moved him on, forcibly, of course.

We went into the Horticulture Building where we saw some new crop improvements. Chet was especially impressed by the new improved pop corn raised by Clifford Crist. It seems that it grows already popped and sacked and stays "erist" in all kinds of weather.

As we were leaving the building, we bought a newspaper and were extremely relieved to read that Lynn "Muscles" Bollinger had been safely transported back to Alcatraz by that courageous officer, John Graham. Police Sergeant Graham captured the dangerous criminal marmed and single-handed. It is said that Bollinger was heavily armed with several sling-shots and a bean-shooter that he had learned to use in Chester High School.

Christine pulled the protesting Chet and me into the building where all the food and clothes were on display. We noticed a huge cake elaborately decorated and bearing a blue ribbon. We peeked around the corner and found Willodean Pottenger standing behind it. Willodean told us that this was to have been her wedding cake, but she changed her mind and thought that she might just as well get some good out of it.

Things were beginning to bore Chet so we headed for the Midway. As we were nearing the merry-go-round, we met an ambulance driver whom we recognized as Ileana Fitch. Two doctors had Jack Pullin on a stretcher. Ileana explained to us that Jack had been thrown from one of the merry-go-round horses when it unexpectedly turned a corner.

We then headed for the building labeled "1962 on Display." There we saw a huge-bodied car which operated on a fuel called H₂O otherwise known as water. The genius inventor was none other than "Lefty" Lefforge. "Lefty" informed us that as a pastime, he was the assistant coach at Manchester College.

By this time we were hungry. Naturally, we stopped at a hot dog stand for what else can you find at a State Fair? We were astonished to see Willis Hanpert, the manager, who explained to us that he was elected National President of the Future Farmers of America. His office is located at 10th and Broadway, North Manchester, Indiana. Willis also informed us that "Swooner Crooner" Grindle had just accepted a long time contract to sing for Fred Waring's orchestra. The contract calls for $1 per year. Since perfecting a device for alkalizing the sour notes that come from slide trombones, money is no longer an inducement to him.

During our talk with Willis, we overheard a stirring conversation between "Master" Cornwell and Art Grindle. The two "men" had just had a verbal argument over who should pay the dime for the "target practice" they had just engaged in. They were shooting ducks.

We started on our way again and whom should we meet but "Queenie" Swihart. Carole informed us that she was in the game of politics at the present time. However, she has her troubles also. She is suing "Comedian" Bob McFarland for $10,000. It seems that while attending one of his performances, an over-ripe egg aimed at the comedian hit her instead.

Once more we were on our way, and this time we ran into Ralph Kester. Ralph has become the editor and co-owner of the newspaper "Kilroy's News Flashes." Ralph informed us that his good friend, "Professor" Jackson, has just signed a contract with Guy Lombardo. Leigh at present is also holder of the title "Best Ink Spot of America."

Our next conversation was with the one and only "Chief" Helvey. Elaine told me that she is making herself a career as chief cook and bottlewasher in the Anghinbaugh household. She loves her "work" very much. "Chief" reported to us that "Marcy" Tyner has just received her "dreamboat," that red Buick convertible. When "Marcy" is not driving her new auto, she is secretary to Wayne Dilling, her shorthand and typing teacher back in Chester High School.

We met Gladys Greer with several volumes of her book, "Advice on How to Lose Friends and Disgust People." She said she couldn't pass up an opportunity to sell a few copies. Gladys told us that Marily Warren has found her long-sought-for friend, "Grow-'em-Taller Tonic." Marily is a professional beauty operator in Hollywood.

Our next stop was at the "Swine Barn." There we found "Kaintucky" Tackitt practicing the very delicate art of hog-calling. Charlie started this career just after he graduated from Chester High School back in 1947. Charlie informed us that our old high school pals, "Bobbie" Miller and Fred Martin, have entered into a partnership in the theater business. Recently they purchased the Globe Theater in London in which they offer only Shakespeare drama to an eager public.

Over in the show ring, we observed Todd Schroll tenderly caring for his pet show hogs—Durocs, of course. Bonnie claims that there is a complete understanding between his pets and him. Todd told us that Bill Runkel has finally made a name for himself. Bill, with the help of his loving wife, has finally answered the question of which came first—the egg or the chicken! However, he will not reveal his answer.

On we went on our little journey and whom should we meet but Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hoover. Mrs. Hoover (the former Joann Snell) is a good law abiding citizen of Michigan City. Mr. Hoover is the superintendent of the penal institution there. Joann informed us that Annabelle Hanley is leading a simple but very happy life back in good old North Manchester. Annabelle has taken the position in Chester High formerly held by Miss Betty Gongwer. Annabelle specializes in teaching the famous play, "Macbeth."

Finally, we came to the last part of our little sightseeing tour. At a litue side show, the two entertainers were those beautiful gals, Eva Rhoades and Bonnie Workman. Our friends were acting out a little skit entitled "How to Win That Man!" Yes, you guessed it! Their victim was "Toddy" Schroll. It seems that Bonnie was victor.

We were just preparing to enter the Coliseum when Chet overheard a rumor that a prominent movie house was on fire. With a speed that had brought him so many track ribbons at Chester, he tore from the Fairgrounds with Christine in close pursuit. I was left standing gazing at a slowly settling cloud of dust but happy that I had renewed the acquaintances of long ago.

Juniors

In September of 1944, forty-three freshmen enrolled at Chester to start off the year. Two parties were held near the school since the freshmen were not allowed to have a party other than at the schoolhouse. The following September the enrollment decreased to thirty-seven. Two parties were held that year; one a hay ride and the other a skating party. In 1946, thirty-eight members enrolled in the Junior class. During the basketball season the class sold refreshments at home games. At the Roann game a cake walk was held. On April 16th a three-act comedy entitled "The Sunshine Twins," was presented under the direction of Miss Eshelman. The Junior-Senior Reception was held at the YMCA in Fort Wayne on May 2nd.

The officers for the year were: President, Richard Frantz; Vice-President, Roger Grossnickle; Secretary, Helen Frantz; and Treasurer, Rex Schilling. The class advisers were Miss Eshelman and Mr. Gerold Faudree.

Sophomores

The class of 1949, consisting of thirty-one students, entered Chester High School on August 31, 1946, to start the year off with a bang. In the second semester Charles Gibbs was welcomed as a new member, but he came too late for his picture to appear in "Rarelings." Officers elected for the year were: Jack Kissinger, President; Tom Dillman, Vice-President; Coleen Warren, Secretary-Treasurer. Miss Stone and Mr. Scribner were the sponsors. The class enjoyed a scavenger hunt in the fall and a skating party during the second semester.

Freshmen

This year the freshman class with its fifty-two members boasts the largest enrollment of any class at Chester. The advisers were Mrs. Baker and Mr. Dilling. Glorea Vance joined the class after pictures for the annual were taken, so her picture does not appear. This is also true of Robert Yentes.

The traditional hay ride was enjoyed on September 27 and a Christmas gift exchange was held the Friday afternoon before Christmas vacation.

The officers were: Danny Fulton, President; Patricia Hathaway, Vice-President; Beverly Stellar, Secretary; and Peggy Baker, Treasurer.

Student Council

The Student Council is composed of the presidents of the classes. The group meets with Mr. Smith to discuss program and problems related to the school. Taking charge of school assembly programs, planning parties, drawing tourney tickets, and keeping the playground fit for use are only a few of the many things done by the Student Council.

Librarians

In carrying on the work of the library, Miss Gongwer, school librarian, chooses a corps of helpers from volunteers who are interested in this field. The student librarians have served very efficiently in helping Christine and Chet find their needed books and in keeping the books, magazines and newspapers in order.

Future Farmers of America

The officers of the Future Farmers of America are: President, Todd Schroll; Vice-President, Robert Burch; Secretary, Earl Grindle; Treasurer, Willis Hauptert; Reporter, Wilbur Miller; Sentinel, Ray Schilling; Adviser, Mr. Scribner.

The F.F.A. is an organization of boys studying Vocational Agriculture. It tries to develop in a boy a challenge for better leadership, clearer thinking, cooperation, and the desire to be a better farmer.

Meetings are held twice a month during the school year and once a month during the summer. At these meetings talks are made by the members and occasionally outside speakers are brought in to talk about new and better ways of farming.

The activities of the F.F.A. this year included the sale of hot dogs during the noon hour, a pest killing contest with Laketon, gilt projects, preparation of a district F.F.A. news letter, a trip to the International Livestock Show, the initiation of six new green hands, state convention, and the nomination of Robert Burch and Richard Little as candidates for the Hoosier Farmer Degree.

Boy's 4-H

The 4-H Club is a national organization of boys and girls interested in rural activities.

There are two boys' clubs in Chester Township: Chester Hustling Hayseeds and Salem Boys 4-H Club. Meetings are held every three weeks in the homes of members.

The Salem Boys 4-H Club Officers are:	The Hustling Hayseeds officers are:

Vice-President Willis Hauptert	Vice-President Heinz Deckena
Secy.-Treas. Todd Schroll	Secy.-Treas. Bill Wright
Leaders—Mr. Scribner and Floyd Kreider	Leaders—Mr. Scribner, Chas. Christman

Some of the things enjoyed by 4-H members are skating parties, 4-H Club Fair, 4-H Camp, 4-H Tours, and the honor of winning ribbons for their achievements.

For 1947, the boys have enrolled in fifteen dairy, four beef, and seventeen sow and litter projects.

Chester Township 4-H Clubs have been the most active clubs in the county. Robert Burch has probably been the most successful individual as far as prizes are concerned. Last year he won $138 in premium money on his Berkshire litter.

Girls' 4-H

The Girls' 4-H Clubs were organized to help girls learn to cook, sew, bake, can, and to keep house. The interest is so great in Chester Township that five clubs were formed—each section of the township having one or more clubs. In all the clubs except one, all the enrolled members completed their projects. The clubs with the numbers enrolled and their officers are as follows:

Y-Teens

The Y-Teen Club, formerly the Girl Reserve, is a junior division of the Young Woman's Christian Association. Membership is open to all sophomore, junior, and senior girls. The Chester Y-Teens have forty members who have been selling basketball schedule pencils, ice cream bars and greeting cards to raise money for the activities of the year.

The girls entertained their parents at the annual Pa-Ma-and-Me Banquet at the First Brethren Church on February 18 and held a formal banquet in the spring.

At their meetings, held once a month during convocation period, the girls sometimes have informal discussions, "sings," or have outside speakers and entertainers.

Hi-Y

The Hi-Y is the high school branch of the YMCA. Its purpose is "To create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character." Meetings are held once a month during convocation periods at which time usually outside speakers talk to the group.

This year the boys had a swimming party at Huntington and a Best Girl banquet at the Sheller Hotel. The Hi-Y sold school emblems and T-shirts and joined with the Y-Teens in selling ice cream bars at the noon hour in order to raise funds to finance their program.

Chatter Staff

Chester Chatter, the school's bi-weekly newspaper is published by the advanced typing class under the sponsorship of Mr. Dilling and Miss Gongwer. This year marked the second year of its existence. Practically everyone in school was a subscriber.

The staff was organized as follows:

Editor-in-Chief	Bonnie Workman
Associate Editor	Willodean Pottenger
Circulation Manager	Eva Rhoades
Joke Editor	Joann Snell
Art Editor	Gladys Greer
Advisers	Miss Gongwer, Mr. Dilling
Typists	Ileana Fitch, Elaine Helvey, Carole Swihart, Marcella Tyner, Marily Warren

Each class and the different school organizations chose reporters who handed in their news on Monday before the paper was issued on Friday. Papers are exchanged with many nearby schools and ideas picked up from these papers to make the Chester Chatter better.

The editor, associate editor, art editor, and circulation manager, together with the advisers, attended the meetings of the Indiana High School Press Association at Franklin College and gave a report to the school both over the "Mike" and through the columns of the paper.

Swing Band

This organization was started in the latter part of the first semester in 1946 with eight members. After several practices a bass was added; then some time later the drums were added. Now there are ten members. This band is under the direction of Mr. Leckrone.

In addition to giving a program for the school, they have entertained a number of local groups. They also furnished the music for the minstrel.

Debate

This year debating was revived at Chester as an interschool project after a lapse of several years. It is hoped that the experience gained may be valuable for future years.

Senior Play

The play, entitled 'A Little Honey,' was chosen for our class play this year. It was a comedy in three acts and was written by William Davidson.

In the play Mrs. Minton, (Bonnie Workman) one of those bossy souls who insists on living everyone else's life, taught Diana (Gladys Greer) that the way to interest a man was to be able to talk fluently on subjects dear to a man's heart such as baseball, carburetors and the stock market. Diana tried it—with disastrous results. As she talked, Tom (Earl Grindle) went off to the Pacific without a word about an engagement. Diana was a very unhappy girl and when Tom came back, Mother coached Diana as usual. Tom suddenly developed a previous engagement and left early. Diana was crushed, and then Grandma (Willodean Pottenger) took a hand. It worked for a while. When Tom was practically ready to pop the question, the kid sister, Jerry (Joann Snell), and her heart throb, Albert (Lynn Bollinger), barged in and gave the scheme away. Diana wanted to curl up and die, for, by now, not only had Tom gone, but the whole household was in an uproar. The cook (Elaine Helvey) went on a rampage. A southern widow (Eva Rhoades) tossed her income tax problems in Mr. Minton's (Arthur Grindle) lap, and evidently hoped to toss herself there next. Diana felt that it was now or never with Tom. Nobody else's advice worked so she tried her own ideas—and exploded into a tumultuously funny and appealing scene that raced right up to the final curtain. (P.S. Diana got her man!)

Other members of the cast were: Mrs. Simmons, a trained nurse, Marcella Tyner; "Scoots" Minton, a nine-year-old, Marily Warren; and a "Sure-Shot" man, an exterminator, Charles Tackitt.

Junior Play

"The Sunshine Twins" is a comedy based on the troubles of the Robinson family. The Robinson family is composed of Mr. and Mrs. Robinson and their five children, the last two, a pair of darling twins, Connie being altogether the adorable female portion and "Gobby" the equally lovable male portion. In the eyes of the latter two, every member of the family is out of step but them. Each presents his own problem which adds to the family's conglomerate unrest. The twins, only fifteen, are ardent believers that a smile makes everything right and while trying to reform the republic in general, do not overlook the fact that a doctrine should begin at home.

They accomplish their purpose finally but not before they have seemingly done all sorts of damage such as getting their father fired from his position, having their socialistic brother set upon by ruffians, smashing their sister's dream of a Hollywood career and inciting their brother-in-law to rebellion against their married sister. These are only incidental happenings as situation after situation arises in which is recognized the machinations of the sunshine twins.

The play opens with a laugh which gradually increases to the crescendo of a roar at the final curtain.

Senior Band

The Chester High School Senior Band was first organized ten years ago by Mr. Gerald Miller. It now has an enrollment of 36 members and is under the direction of Mr. Harold Leckrone. Near the end of the year, six members of the junior band were promoted to senior band.

In 1911 under the direction of Mr. Miller, the band placed second in the State Band contest. In 1913, Mr. Robert Schnar became director and while under his direction the band won first division in the State Contest. Mrs. Lois Amiss became director in 1944 and the band received a second division rating at the contest. In 1955 Mr. Leckrone took over the baton and the band came up with another second division rating.

In 1945 the Chester Band Patron's Club was organized and they started working toward their goal—new uniforms. In the spring of 1946 the uniforms were ordered and received in time for the spring concert.

The band played for the Servia Big Day during the afternoon and evening of August 31. On October 11 the Concert Band assisted by the Glee Club and several special numbers, presented a fall concert. The next week a Chester-Central combined band played for a Republican rally at Manchester college.

On October 23 the Band Patrons sponsored a Halloween carnival and on March 7 they sponsored a minstrel show.

The band marched and played at all basketball games and gave a special performance at the Urbana game which was the Band Appreciation game from which the band received the proceeds.

This year a county band organization consisting of the bands from each school in the county, was formed. Two programs were given—one in the Wabash gym and one in the Central gym.

The climax of the year's activities is participation in the Band and Orchestra Contest.

The officers for this year were: President, Earl Grindle; Vice President, Leigh Jackson; and Librarian, Willodean Pottenger.

Junior Band

The junior band is made up of underclassmen who are just beginning their band activities. Mr. Leckrone meets them each Thursday morning.

Majorettes

The majorettes lead the band into their various formations at the ball games. This year new white wool uniforms with gold trim were purchased and the girls added much color to the maneuvers of the band.

Girls' Glee Club

All girls of the sophomore, junior and senior classes have the opportunity of membership in the Girls' Glee Club which meets three periods a week under the direction of Miss Walther. Officers elected by the group are: Liela Bechtold, President and Reporter; Dorothy Cripe, Secretary-Treasurer; Each of the thirty-one members sang a solo or in a duet as a requirement for the course.

The entire group sang for several local churches, took part in the County Music Festival, competed in the choral contest, sang at the school Christmas program and other school functions including Baccalaureate. Just before the Christmas vacation the girls spread Yuletide cheer by caroling at many homes in the community near Chester.

Mixed Chorus

Twelve girls, chosen from the girls' glee club, and six boys from the sophomore, junior, and senior classes make up the mixed chorus which meets once a week. At the beginning of the year, the group elected Lynn Bollinger, President; Dolores Crist, Secretary-Treasurer; and Pat Schroll, Reporter.

Representatives from this group sang in the All-District Chorus at the Northeastern Indiana Teachers' Association at Fort Wayne in October. The entire group participated in the All-County Vocal Festival on March 19, sang at the local Methodist church for the Lenten service, and also sang at the District Contest, and school programs, including Baccalaureate services.

Livestock Judging Team

The livestock judging team consisting of Willis Haupt, Ronald Metzger, Dick Little and Robert Burch placed second in the county contest, fifth in the district and eleventh in the state. There were 16 teams in the district contest and 39 teams in the state contest.

In the state they placed third in beef cattle as a team and first in sheep judging as a team.

Willis Haupt was eleventh high individual in all classes of livestock. Dick Little was second high individual in beef judging. Robert Burch was fourth high individual in horse judging. Ronald Metzger was second and Robert Burch third high in sheep judging.

In the county contest Dick Little was high individual in all classes of livestock.

In the district contest Robert Burch was third high individual in all classes of livestock.

The judging team placed first in judging sheep in the county, district, and state.

Teamwork

Showing the Powerhouse of Chester High

“Doe” Faudree, as his players call him, has coached the boys at Chester for four years. This year his team won 12 games and lost 7 during the season. They won the 4 way tourney by defeating Clear Creek and South Whitley. In the county tourney, the Panthers lost their first game to Chippewa. In the sectional tourney, they defeated Washington Center, Chippewa, and Lafontaine and lost to Central in the final game in a double overtime.

FIRST ROW DOWN—Dick Frantz, Bob Johnson, Fred Martin

THIRD ROW DOWN—John Morford, Bob Little

FOURTH ROW DOWN—Jack Pullin Dick Piper,

“Pete” Faudree coached the Jr. Hi and Freshman basketball teams. His Jr. Hi won 6 and lost 2 games. He also coached the high school track and the baseball teams. Illness prevented his coaching the baseball team the latter part of the season, during which time his brother took over these duties.

The Student Managers

Todd Schroll and Bob Miller were selected by the first team to serve as student managers during basketball season. Their job was to attend practices, clean the balls, take care of equipment and act as errand boys for the coach.

Yell Leaders

Chester's colorful yell leaders, Jean Clark, Earl Grindle and Dorothy Cripe, were chosen by the student body to lead yells at the ball games. Win or lose, they always had a yell to encourage the team.

Baseball

This year the baseball squad attempted to carry on the unprecedented record of the past two years. The team of 1945 had an undefeated season of eight victories. County championships were won in both '44 and '45.

The 1946 edition of the Panthers won four games while losing two. The outstanding game was the defeat of Central and the highlight of the game was Piper's stealing home on Ziegler's wind-up. Jack Pullin's withdrawal from the squad requiring a new infielder, and Mouser's curve ball made the team jittery and they failed to beat Roann in the final game. Thus they lost a chance to tie for the championship.

Track

The 1946 track season was opened with an interclass meet which was won by the seniors.

With only a handful of lettermen on the squad, the team lost four of its six meets. The competition was very tough, however. Among the competing schools were Wabash, Pierceton, South Whitley, Larwill and Huntington. The boys reached their peak in the county meet which was held the last day of school. The results were: Chester 97; Central 19; Laketon 45.

The 1947 squad was without the services of such excellent performers as Herman Oney, Buford Baker, Max Coblentz, Leon Frantz, Joe Ebbinghouse, Joe Piper, and Todd Enyeart. Oney had won the "Most Valuable in Track" award for two consecutive years during which time he lost only two races.

THE PURPOSE OF DEPOSIT INSURANCE:—

When Congress created the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation its primary objective was the protection of depositors. This Corporation began insuring deposits January 1, 1934. It is a permanent organization.

It now insures deposits in a great majority of banks, including this institution. As a result, millions of depositors enjoy a degree of financial security heretofore unknown. When you have money on deposit here, you know for a certainty that your deposits up to $5,000 are fully safeguarded against loss. Deposit insurance is for your protection.
